President's Letter

Paul Yanchek, a Spiritual Director on Women's #13 shared, as he described his view of the weekend, how when he tossed his son in the air and would set him down, Aaron would say, "Daddy, do it again!" This was Paul's analogy of how our great and wondrous heavenly "Daddy" did it again. WOW! Our Father, our Lord Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit did it again on Men's #14 on Women's #13 just as He did on the 25 Cleveland Tres Dias weekends that preceded these two weekends.

Our community is so privileged and blessed to hear at the closing ceremonies the testimonies of the new Pescadores sharing how the Lord had spoken to them in powerful ways during the weekend. As I listened to them I heard how God healed deep wounds from the past, how He set some free from heavy burdens, how He moved some to get out from their comfort zones, and how He revealed His unending love for each of them in special ways.

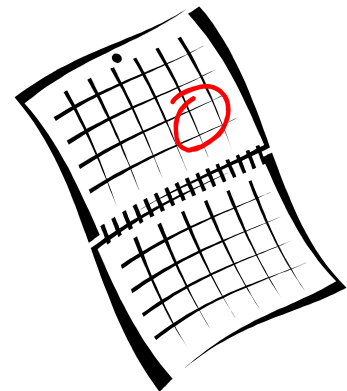

Yes, community, this is why we allow God to work through us by serving on these weekends. I applaud all of you who were obedient as the Lord called you to serve.

But, as you know, there is more to do for these new Pescadores. They are beginning their 4th Day and they need your support. If you were a sponsor, a table leader, an old or new friend of a new Pescadore, consider giving them a call to encourage them, to personally invite them to the Secuela on November 12, 2005 and/or to join a reunion group.

Ask the Lord what He wants you to do. You will be blessed.

Jim

WEEKEND CHAIR LETTER TO COMMUNITY

"If you build it, they will come" is a famous line from the movie Field of Dreams. I think our new slogan for Cleveland Tres Dias should be "If we have a weekend, they will bless!" You, the community, outdid yourselves during this month!!! We had two weekends within two weeks of each other, and you blessed us with tons of delicious food (much of it homemade) and wonderful gifts. On top of that you came to bless the candidates, even in the rain! Many of you were never seen as you made beds, set up and tore down rooms, moved luggage and transported inventory. The candidates were totally amazed with your outpouring of love; they saw God's heart reflected in each of your acts of kindnesses. John 12:26 says, "My Father will honor the one who serves me." May God richly bless each one of you who so graciously served Him. Thank you for making our job easier.
