President's Letter

Since I never went to kindergarten (maybe that's my problem!!), I was always jealous of the book, "Everything I needed to know, I learned in kindergarten." As I am finishing up my last month serving as Cleveland Tres Dias president, I have been reflecting on what I have learned through my Tres Dias experiences. I have learned ...

- that I knew very little of the administrative workings of Tres Dias and have gained great respect for the Pescadores who have served in leadership capacities.
- what a blessing it is to work with brothers and sisters who love the Lord and love Tres Dias.
- how God works through every Pescadore as He uses their special gifts to serve the candidates.
- how God puts each candidate on exactly the right weekend for them to learn what He wants them to learn about themselves.
- how God positions Pescadores in the right place at the right time to make each weekend special for the candidates.
- how each Rollo given is unique because of the person's life experiences that gives it.
- how God molds each team filled with many different personalities and abilities into one.
- how each weekend experience is unique and marvelous and God works through difficulties for His purpose.
- how each chosen verse is exactly needed for each of the candidates that attends.
- how God uses our fumbling efforts for His glory.
- how our community rises to every occasion of need faithfully and without any thought of credit.
- how blessed I am to have each of you in my life.
- most of all, I have learned GOD IS GOOD...all the time!!

GOLF & FUN!

I thank all of you for the privilege, the wonderful learning experience and the joy of serving alongside you in this capacity.

Fondly and DeColores,
Jim
