From the President.....

Unite / Unity – to cause something to adhere to another, in one accord or one spirit.

God is united as the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. God created unity when He gave Adam a woman. There are many examples of unity, just look around. They all carry a common thread or element and work together for a particular cause or towards a certain goal. As Christians we are called to be unified! No it, ands, or buts about it!

We who share a common faith in Christ Jesus should cooperate with each other. We are different, but we are united as one under the headship of Jesus. We need to help each other and be aware when others are in need of help. Despite our differences we each have a specific function in the Kingdom of God.

Jesus prayer for us in John 17:11, "...Holy Father, keep them and care for them-all those you have given me- so that they will be united just as we are." And in 17:21 he continues, "My prayer for all of them is that they will be one, just as you and I are one, Father-that just as you are in me and I am in you, so they will be in us, and the world will believe you sent me." God's desire-for all of us to be a powerful witness to Gods' love for mankind. Paul writes in Ephesians 4:3, "Always keep yourselves united in the Holy Spirit, and bind yourselves together with peace." He also says in 2:21, "We who believe are carefully joined together, becoming a holy temple for the Lord." I will be praying that you will find time to read Ephesians chapter 4, a great read from the hand of God about unity.

Paul also gives us a great description of what it looks like when believers come together as one. They worship together, they meet in homes and share meals together in remembrance of Jesus, they learned and taught together. They praised God together as one body sharing their lives. Close your eyes for a moment and imagine what that looks like, is something you would want in your life? Is this something that is achievable? Is this what God sees from us?

Each and everyone one of us has something to share for the common good and that is why we were brought together! Are you being a powerful tool to be used by God for His Kingdom? We are called to encourage each other, not gossip about one another, be in prayer on how God wants to use you, continue to work together in humility and be prayer continuously for one another. We also need to be careful not to be overly proud of our abilities, we should not be jealous of others' abilities and we should never look down on those who's gifts are not as visible, everyone has something to share. Let us all be motivated by LOVE, "Love your neighbor as yourself." Matthew 22:29

I leave you with this Psalm.

"How wonderful it is, how pleasant , when brothers live together in harmony!"

For harmony is as precious as the fragrant anointing oil that was poured over Aaron's head, that ran down his beard and onto his robe.

Harmony is as refreshing as the dew from Mount Hermon that falls on the mountains of Zion. And the Lord has pronounced his blessing, even life forevermore." Psalm 133:1-3

Community News

Dear Community,

I have included in this month's Newsletter other communities who will have their own weekends in the month of February. I would encourage you, along with Nanci and myself, to participate in sending palanca their way. Here we have an opportunity to be God's hands and feet, no matter the distance, to extend love and grace just like we received during our personal weekend. I like the way the international website describes palanca, "Bear in mind that letters in and of themselves are not palanca! Letters are merely one vehicle in which we convey the actual palanca being done at that time. In other words, the effort, thoughts and prayers that go into the letters are actually the palanca, not the letters themselves."

(<http://www.tresdias.org>)

Here are examples of palanca:

PERSONAL PALANCA: This is palanca performed on behalf of individual candidates and team members. It is most frequently demonstrated in personal notes that are not meant for anyone but the recipient.

- A brief note of encouragement
- Reassurance that God will meet the candidate right where he is
- Adding an encouraging scripture is recommended (reminding of God's promises, etc).
- Let them know you are praying for them (and do it!).
- It is important to have personal palanca available for Friday and Saturday. (It's a lever, so use it).
- You can include small items that can fit in an envelope can be included. Such as "pass it on" cards, small bookmarks, small pins, etc.

- Do not refer to any special events that happen over the weekend. Your palanca may not be delivered when you expect it to be, so you wouldn't want to spoil the surprise.
- Do not refer to home or family. It's important to maintain the focus and sequestered nature of the weekend.
- Do not talk about how you felt on your weekend. The candidate may be having a very different experience and you wouldn't want to set him/her up for disappointment.
- Do not mark palanca for delivery at specific times. You may specify a particular day, as well as "am" or "pm", but not specific times.

GENERAL PALANCA: This is palanca performed on the weekend in general. It is most frequently demonstrated in notes, letters or posters that are addressed to the team and candidates, often accompanied by small gift items or tokens.

- The letter should be addressed to the team and candidates on a particular weekend. It should include the actual palanca that you will be providing to the weekend - such as:
 - A gift of prayer. Let them know that you will be praying for them. Perhaps you will pray for the weekend every time you have to stop at a red light, or something like that. They should know it. (And you should be sure to honor your commitment)
 - A gift of sacrifice: Perhaps you made something that you are giving to the weekend. Let them know the spiritual significance of the item.
 - Try to include an encouraging scripture. Using the theme scripture of the weekend helps to promote the unity of the weekend.
 - The letter shouldn't be too long - a maximum of one typewritten page. Keep in mind that general palanca is read by the auxiliaries throughout the weekend when time permits, so the letter should not be too long or complex as its meaning may be lost.
- ⇒ This IS where you can refer to your own weekend ("I sat where you are sitting...")
- ⇒ If possible, include small tokens for the team and candidates. The items should have some spiritual significance and can be as simple as some chocolate or candy, as complex as craft items that you and your Reunion Group made, and anything in between. Remember it's the thought, prayer and service that's important, not the actual item itself.
- ⇒ General palanca is also provided in other ways:
 - Providing break food (snacks).
 - Providing candy for the tables.
 - Providing flowers for the dining room or Rollo room.
