March 2010

From the President.....

Paul writes to the Christians in Rome that patience and encouragement, given by God, will help them live in harmony with each other. And by doing so, they can join together in one voice and give praise to God. Paul continues, "So accept each other just as Christ has accepted you, then God will be glorified." Romans 15:13. In verse 14 Paul brings it home, the reason he is writing to them. "I myself am convinced, my brothers, that you yourselves are full of goodness, complete in knowledge and competent to instruct one another."

When you hear the word goodness what do you think of? The quality of being good or decent. Maybe behaving properly and/or being honest. These are all fine, but these meanings are not quite what Paul was writing about.

If we look and read carefully at the Word of God we will be made aware of the goodness of God that Paul is referring to. This trait is mentioned approximately 35 times, depending on what version you are reading.

Abundant in living kindness, for our God is tolerant and patient. He is willing to wait while we turn away from sin and ask for forgiveness. We too need to forgive just as God forgives us. Matter a fact I do believe I have prayed this may times before, something like, ..."and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors..."

Unfailing love, which reminds me of John 3:16, if by chance you are not familiar or can't remember it, now would be a great time to look it up.

He loves righteousness and justice. I think we would all agree that the Lord our God is right in saying we are sinners and the only way to get right is to confess our sin so we can follow Him more closely.

The Goodness of God is not prejudice or jealous, He has compassion on all his creation and we should too. Does covet come to anyone's mind and didn't Jesus say something about LOVING thy neighbor, yes I'm sure He did. Many other terms, meanings come to mind, but if I keep giving them to you, you will not look for them yourself.

So, how do we attain these traits that are in the nature of Christ. The Bible tells us, "But when the Holy Spirit controls our lives, he will produce this kind of fruit in us: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. Here there is no conflict with the law." Galatians 5:22 We are unable to do it on our own, we need to allow Him to come into our lives and rule our lives. We need to know him, love him and imitate him. Another verse I came across says this, "But the wisdom that comes from heaven is first of all pure. It is also peace loving, gentle at all times, and willing to yield to others. It is full of mercy and good deeds. It shows no partiality and is always sincere. And those who are peacemakers will plant seeds of peace and reap a harvest of goodness." James 3:18 When you have the opportunity, read James 3:13-18, to become a wiser person.

It is your choice, will you choose to present the Goodness of God to others or will you not.

God's Goodness appears in two ways, giving and forgiving.

"You are a chosen people. You are royal priests, a holy nation, God's very own possession. As a result you can show others the goodness of God, for he called you out of the darkness into his wonderful light."

Community News

Dear Community,

I have included in this month's Newsletter other communities who will have their own weekends in the month of March. I would encourage you, along with Nanci and myself, to participate in sending palanca their way. Here we have an opportunity to be God's hands and feet, no matter the distance, to extend love and grace just like we received during our personal weekend. I like the way the international website describes palanca, "Bear in mind that letters in and of themselves are not palanca! Letters are merely one vehicle in which we convey the actual palanca being done at that time. In other words, the effort, thoughts and prayers that go into the letters are actually the palanca, not the letters themselves."
(<http://www.tresdias.org>)

Here are examples of palanca:

PERSONAL PALANCA: This is palanca performed on behalf of individual candidates and team members. It is most frequently demonstrated in personal notes that are not meant for anyone but the recipient.

- A brief note of encouragement
- Reassurance that God will meet the candidate right where he is
- Adding an encouraging scripture is recommended (reminding of God's promises, etc).
- Let them know you are praying for them (and do it!).
- It is important to have personal palanca available for Friday and Saturday. (It's a lever, so use it).
- You can include small items that can fit in an envelope can be included. Such as "pass it on" cards, small bookmarks, small pins, etc.
- Do not refer to any special events that happen over the weekend. Your palanca may not be delivered when you expect it to be, so you wouldn't want to spoil the surprise.
- Do not refer to home or family. It's important to maintain the focus and sequestered nature of the weekend.
- Do not talk about how you felt on your weekend. The candidate may be having a very different experience and you wouldn't want to set him/her up for disappointment.
- Do not mark palanca for delivery at specific times. You may specify a particular day, as well as "am" or pm", but not specific times.

GENERAL PALANCA: This is palanca performed on the weekend in general. It is most frequently demonstrated in notes, letters or posters that are addressed to the team and candidates, often accompanied by small gift items or tokens.

- The letter should be addressed to the team and candidates on a particular weekend. It should include the actual palanca that you will be providing to the weekend - such as:
 - A gift of prayer. Let them know that you will be praying for them. Perhaps you will pray for the weekend every time you have to stop at a red light, or something like that. They should know it. (And you should be sure to honor your commitment)
 - A gift of sacrifice: Perhaps you made something that you are giving to the weekend. Let them know the spiritual significance of the item.
 - Try to include an encouraging scripture. Using the theme scripture of the weekend helps to promote the unity of the weekend.
 - The letter shouldn't be too long - a maximum of one typewritten page. Keep in mind that general palanca is read by the auxiliaries throughout the weekend when time permits, so the letter should not be too long or complex as its meaning may be lost.
- ⇒ This IS where you can refer to your own weekend ("I sat where you are sitting...")
- ⇒ If possible, include small tokens for the team and candidates. The items should have some spiritual significance and can be as simple as some chocolate or candy, as complex as craft items that you and your Reunion Group made, and anything in between. Remember it's the thought, prayer and service that's important, not the actual item itself.
- ⇒ General palanca is also provided in other ways:
 - Providing break food (snacks).
 - Providing candy for the tables.
 - Providing flowers for the dining room or Rollo room.
